INSTRUCTIONS

1. These requests are continuing in nature and include all Documents and information prepared or received by You between the date of receipt of these requests and the date of trial. - a. describes in detail the nature of the Document and its contents;
- b. identifies the person who prepared or authorized the Document and, if applicable, the person to whom the Document was sent;
- c. specifies the date upon which the Document was prepared or transmitted (or both); and
- d. specifies, to the extent possible, the date upon which the Document was lost or destroyed, and if destroyed, the conditions of or reasons for such destruction and the persons requesting and performing the destruction.

Similarly, if an objection is made to the production of any portion of a Document, the portion(s) subject to the objection should be produced with the portion(s) objected to redacted and indicated clearly.

7. For any request for a document evidencing a communication, you must produce records of such communication within your possession, custody, or control, including, but not limited to, a copy of the communication itself as well as records that would tend to show the communication occurred (such as telephone billing records and computer server logs).
